

How Religious Communities Locally Responded to the Coronavirus Pandemic

Name of Religious Tradition: Judaism

Location: Coventry

Place of Worship: Various hired venues and homes

During the Pandemic, the main changes to our ways of worshipping were:

- We moved everything onto Zoom to allow our meetings to continue
- Weekly services continued throughout online
- Celebration of festivals, such as Pesach, Purim and Yom Kippur at home using Zoom and through video calls with friends and family

During the Pandemic, the ways in which our religious community reached out to the local community were:

- We have been able to keep in touch with elderly members by phone and online
