Introduction to Web Design using WIX

Web design is the design process of creating websites that are to be displayed on the Internet. The design is determined by the choice of layout, colour, graphics, text and images used.

What is this course about?

Using WIX as the website creating software you will learn how to design a basic website and upload it to the Internet. You will be shown an easy step by step approach for using the tools in WIX to determine the layout, colour, and style of your own Website / Webpage.
