What is this course about?

This course provides a host of stitching experiences using a variety of techniques, tools and materials from both traditional and contemporary genres. Explore colour, texture and pattern using a selection of fibres, fabrics and threads and gain skills in simple hand embroidery, to produce a unique piece of work.

Topics include:

- ♦ Examining and using a variety of stitch methods and techniques
- ♦ Simple hand embroidery techniques
- ♦ Experimenting and designing pieces
- ♦ Making patterns and creating texture
- ♦ Traditional hand stitching skills and techniques from around the world
- ♦ Recycling, upcycling and reinventing uses for everyday items

How will I learn?

You will find out how to develop a range of different skills and use a variety of tools and materials for each project. There will be demonstrations, group tuition and individual support. Guidance and advice will be provided at every stage by our friendly, experienced tutor. This course is suitable for beginners and for those with a little experience too.

What materials will I need?*

Please bring a basic sewing kit and any oddments of fabric, thread or yarns. Information regarding additional materials/resources to bring to each session will be given weekly (with a focus on using recycled materials where possible).

Advice will be given in your first session regarding any additional materials you may need.*
