ACTIVITY BOOK

NAME : _____

PEN AND PAPER

Tic Tac Toe/Three in a row - whatever you call it try and win as many possible!

ONE MINUTE OF WORDS

The timekeeper picks a letter of the alphabet, and then the players have one minute to write down as many words as possible that begin with that letter. The one who comes up with the most words before the time is the winner. Easy!

SQUARES

This game requires two or more players.

The first player draws a line from any dot to any vertically or horizontally adjacent dot.

The next player does the same, and the players continue to take turns drawing lines in this way.

The object of the game is to form a square by joining four dots.

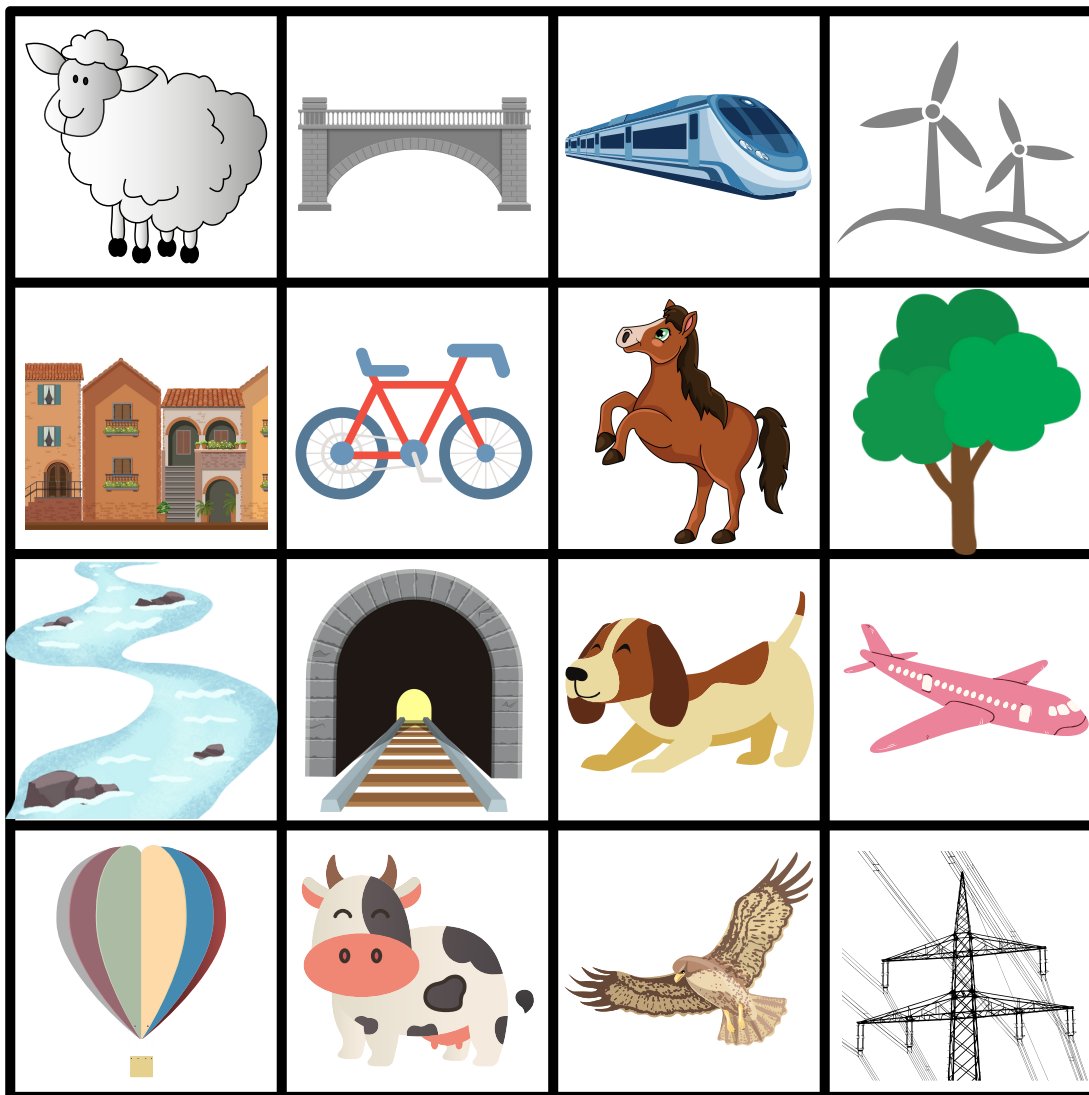

When a player draws a line that closes a square, she writes her initials inside the square and gets a bonus turn.

When all possible lines have been drawn, the player with the most initialled squares is the winner.

RAIL SAFETY

We love the railways, but it is important to be aware of some of the safety aspects to travelling by train. Can you spot all the hazards in this picture?

NO FUSS GAMES

Colour safari

Pick a particular colour and get the kids to look out the window for things that are that colour. Set a target amount depending on how long you want to keep them occupied! If you want to keep things quieter, you can get them to write their answers down rather than shout them out.

The A-Z Game

Pick a topic and start listing items in alphabetical order (eg: countries). The first person to miss a letter is out and you continue until one person is left.

The Never-Ending Story

One person starts a story and each person in the group contributes 2-3 lines. It's called The Never-Ending Story, but don't worry - you'll get stuck eventually and have to end it.

Raindrop race

Make the most of rainy train journeys by getting the kids to take part in a raindrop race. Each player traces the course of a raindrop as it makes its way down the window; the one that reaches the bottom first wins.

Yes/No/Uhm Game

Avoid saying 'yes,' 'no' and 'uhm' as your train companions fire questions at you.
