

his short linear trail passes through Kidpile Farm and Fulford Heath, crosses the River Cole and skirts the James Braid designed Fulford Golf Course into Wythall.

Clowes Wood & New Fallings Coppice, the first reserve owned by the Warwickshire Wildlife Trust is a good place to start your walk. Here you can explore heathland, woodland and wet meadow, find the burnt stone pile dating back to the Bronze Age, see bluebells in the spring and listen out for the distinctive call of the chiff chaff.

As you cross the River Cole, consider this: its source is very near the main watershed of Midland England. Dropping a pooh stick here could well see it reach the North Sea via the Humber Estuary!

On your route you'll pass the Wythall Fish Bar on Station Road, and there is a Select & Save convenience store opposite Wythall station. If you're looking for something a little more substantial, Becketts Farmshop and Restaurant is just another 15-20 minutes walk from the station.

Further Information:

Visit www.visitsolihull.co.uk for more information on what to see in and around Earlswood.

Earlswood is on the North Warwickshire Line running between Birmingham & Stratford-upon-Avon. There's an hourly service to both Birmingham Moor Street (via Wythall and Shirley) and to Stratford-Upon-Avon (via The Lakes, Henley-in-Arden and all stations beyond).

Note: The Lakes railway station is located closer to Earlswood village.

There are limited facilities available at this station.
