

Keep your workplace safe

Work from home if you can.

Wash or sanitise your hands after touching shared surfaces eg doorknobs, switches, taps, office equipment.

Don't share stationery or work stations with other people.

If you have to carshare, wear a face covering, open windows and sit as far apart as possible.

If you develop symptoms at work notify your manager and leave immediately - book a test and isolate at home.

