

World Book Day Challenge Celebrating 25 Years

Fully funded and supported by artslink

West Midlands Virtual Schools

Virtual Schools Writing Challenge

Launch: Thursday 3rd March 2022

Theme: The Future - The world in 25 years...

Are you ready to take on the Virtual Schools World Book Day Challenge with the opportunity to win a £100 Amazon Voucher.

Plus...everyone that enters will get a book of their own to keep!

Join West Midlands based author Daniel Thompson at 4.30pm on World Book Day -Thursday 3rd March for an online interactive workshop, where he will be giving you insight into his books and his top tips for writing a captivating story.

Daniel Thompson books here:

<https://www.danielthompsonauthor.com/shop>

(This event will be held on Zoom and you local Arts Ambassadors will share the log in details , it will also be posted on the ARTS LINK website:

<https://www.artslinkwm.org.uk/>

To take part in the competition all you will need to do is write your very own short story no longer than one page of A4!

Stories will then be read by Daniel and an independent panel of judges and a winner will be selected.

If you think you have what it takes to be the next Roald Dahl , Julia Donalson or David Walliams then take up this opportunity to let your creativity flow!

Entries must be emailed to rachelartslink@gmail.com by Monday 24th April. Please include your name, age and the name of the virtual school you attend.

