

Making the Difference – Trauma Informed Key Adults

Understand and develop your key adult role in supporting vulnerable children in school:
Creating contexts and relationships in which children and young people can thrive.

Whole Day Training

Dr Sarah Healy (Specialist Senior Educational Psychologist - SEMH) and Dr Heather Carver (Educational Psychologist)

Warwickshire Educational Psychology Service on behalf of the Warwickshire Virtual School

Please sign up to ONE of the following sessions

Date: Wednesday 1st February 2023

Time: 9.30am-4pm

At Bulkington Community and Conference Centre

or

Date: Thursday 9th February 2023

Time: 9.30am-4pm

Venue TBC

Cost: Funded by Warwickshire Virtual School

This course will enable you to:

- Understand the psychology underpinning the role of the key adult
- Explore how to build relationships of trust and understanding
- Understand challenges and develop ways to find solutions
- Practice new, and develop existing, skills to further your role as key adult

Enquiries & Bookings

This course is organised and funded by Warwickshire County Council's Virtual School.

For further information, or to register please contact:

virtualschool@warwickshire.gov.uk

Why might you want to attend this course?

To further develop and enhance your skills as practitioners supporting vulnerable young people.