2. SERVICE INFORMATION

Coventry and Warwickshire border the Birmingham conurbation in the West Midlands. Coventry City Council is a unitary authority serving a population of around 425,566 whilst Warwickshire County Council is a shire county with a population in excess of 571,010 people, the combined coronial areas cover a population approaching 1 million people.

The sub-region is composed of multi-cultural and geographically diverse communities. We accommodate more than 57,000 students who attend the two universities, Coventry University and the University of Warwick. We have 3 large hospital Trusts and there is a major teaching hospital based in Coventry for the sub region. Coventry and Warwickshire Partnership NHS Trust provides mental health services for the sub region. There are 2 prisons (HMP Onley and Rye Hill Category C and B respectively) accommodating a prison population of around 1400 prisoners.

The coronial areas contain sections of the M1, M6, M40, M42, M45, M69 motorways as well as several major A-roads, and main rail lines to/from London. There is also a regional airport at Coventry providing a general and private aviation airfield.

The number of reported deaths in Coventry in 2019 was 1594 and in Warwickshire 1693. The number of Inquests opened were 211 and 305 respectively. The average time between opening to hearing is between 10 to 11 weeks.

Post mortem examinations are conducted at three Hospital Trusts (University Hospital Coventry & Warwick (UHCW), George Eliot Hospital, Nuneaton and Warwick Hospital) by hospital and outside pathologists. All forensic post mortem examination throughout the west midlands are held at UHCW. Paediatric post mortem examinations are conducted at regional venues throughout the midlands. There is also a regional CT scanning facility. All local acute hospital trusts operate a medical examiner scheme.

Daily Operations and Accommodation

Coventry matters: The office base will normally be at Manor House Drive, Coventry CV1 2ND, and inquests will generally be held at Coventry Coroner's Court located in the Alice Arnold Suite, Council House, Earl Street Coventry. The office is open Monday-Friday from 9.15am to 4.30pm. Inquests are opened in Court with dates for inquest hearings, usually set within the required six months.

The Coroner and Assistant Coroners service is supported by 4 coroners officers and 1 administrative staff employed by Coventry City Council. All Local Authority staff are co-located in the same building. In addition there is a coroner's office manager as applicable.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the coroner service manager, who is employed by the Council.

Warwickshire matters: The office base and inquests will generally be at the Warwickshire Justice Centre, Newbold Terrace, Leamington Spa, CV32 4EL. The office is open on weekdays from 8am to 4pm.

In Warwickshire the 5 coroners officers are provided by Warwickshire Constabulary and are located at the Warwickshire Justice Centre in Leamington and Nuneaton Justice Centre. Inquests are opened in Court with dates for inquest hearings, usually set within the required six months.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the legal service manager, who is employed by the Warwickshire County Council in the Resources Directorate.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.
- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an area coroner:

- The area coroner supports the senior coroner in providing a high quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. The area coroner deputises for the senior coroner when the senior coroner is absent and works with the senior coroner to ensure that the day to day running of the jurisdictions takes place to the highest standard. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and where appropriate to be available to assist with 24 hour availability [on a rota basis] as well as holding regular team meetings and liaising with stakeholders. The area coroner will assist the senior coroner in submitting annual returns to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor as and when required.
