1. ADVERT

Assistant Coroner for Coventry and Warwickshire

Salary – fee paid, £442 per day in line with the JNC Coroners' Circular 66

Closing date: 5th June 2022

Coventry City Council and Warwickshire County Council are seeking to appoint a new Assistant Coroner to support the Senior and Area Coroner across the full range of coroner duties in order to deliver a high-quality coroner service to the people of Coventry and Warwickshire.

About the post:

Coventry City Council and Warwickshire County Council share a Senior Coroner (the areas are not merged) and the local authorities, are seeking to appoint an Assistant Coroner to support the Senior and Area Coroner across the full range of coroner duties in order to deliver a high quality coroner service. The successful candidate will be appointed to both coroner areas as the Assistant Coroner and qualified to work in both coronial areas.

The successful candidate will be required to demonstrate knowledge and experience of coroner law and of basic medicine, have proven skills in conducting investigations and an understanding of court procedure. They will also need to demonstrate the excellent communication and interpersonal skills necessary to deal with sensitive situations.

The successful candidate will be required to carry out the duties and responsibilities of a coroner as defined in the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 and associated rules and regulations and as further described in various guidance issued by the Chief Coroner.

These are fee paid positions although they are likely to involve a regular commitment, which is to be agreed between the Assistant Coroner, Senior Coroner and the two local authorities. The successful candidate will be expected on occasion to be available to assist on an out of hours rota system.

It is a Coroner's personal responsibility (and not that of his/her clerk/secretary) to ensure that they sit when possible. The Chief Coroner and the Lord Chancellor would expect an Assistant Coroner to offer a minimum of 20 sitting days each financial year. However, it is recognised that there is a variance of workload in each area.

Who can apply:

The successful candidate must be a barrister or a solicitor or Fellow of the Institute of Legal Executives and satisfy the judicial-appointment eligibility condition which means they will have 5 years of experience whilst holding that qualification. They must be under the age of 70 and be subject to the appointment and eligibility conditions within the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (s.23 and Schedule 3).

Statutory terms of the appointment:

Once a Coroner is appointed, they are then a Judicial Office holder until they reach the age of 70 years (compulsory retirement age) unless they choose to resign or are removed by the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chancellor prior to their 70th birthday.

How to apply:

If you wish to have an informal discussion or arrange a visit, please email Mr Sean McGovern Sean.McGovern@Coventry.gov.uk

Suitably qualified applicants are requested to email their CV and supporting statement to nicholavine@warwickshire.gov.uk

Closing date: 5th June 2022

Interview date: week commencing 4th July 2022

Notification

The vacancy for this post has been notified to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor (as required by statute).

2. CORONER SERVICE INFORMATION

Area information

Coventry and Warwickshire border the Birmingham conurbation in the West Midlands. Coventry City Council is a unitary authority serving a population of around 425,566 whilst Warwickshire County Council is a shire county with a population of around 583,786 people, the combined coronial areas cover a population approaching 1 million people.

The sub-region is composed of multi-cultural and geographically diverse communities. We accommodate more than 57,000 students who attend the two universities, Coventry University and the University of Warwick. We have 3 large hospital Trusts and there is a major teaching hospital based in Coventry for the sub region. Coventry and Warwickshire Partnership NHS Trust provides mental health services for the sub region. There are 2 prisons (HMP Onley and Rye Hill Category C and B respectively) accommodating a prison population of around 1400 prisoners.

The coronial areas contain sections of the M1, M6, M40, M42, M45, M69 motorways as well as several major A-roads, and main rail lines to/from London. There is also a regional airport at Coventry providing a general and private aviation airfield.

The number of reported deaths in Coventry in 2019 was 1594 and in Warwickshire 1693. The number of Inquests opened were 211 and 305 respectively. The average time between opening to hearing is between 10 to 11 weeks.

Post mortem examinations are conducted at three Hospital Trusts (University Hospital Coventry & Warwick (UHCW), George Eliot Hospital, Nuneaton and Warwick Hospital) by hospital and outside pathologists. All forensic post mortem examination throughout the west midlands are held at UHCW. Paediatric post mortem examinations are conducted at regional venues throughout the midlands. There is also a regional CT scanning facility. All local acute hospital trusts operate a medical examiner scheme.

Daily Operations and accommodation

Coventry matters: The office base will normally be at Manor House Drive, Coventry CV1 2ND, and inquests will generally be held at Coventry Coroner's Court located in the Alice Arnold Suite, Council House, Earl Street Coventry. The office is open Monday-Friday from 9.15am to 4.30pm. Inquests are opened in Court with dates for inquest hearings, usually set within the required six months.

The Coroner and Assistant Coroners service is supported by 4 coroners officers and 1 administrative staff employed by Coventry City Council. All Local Authority staff are co-located in the same building. In addition there is a coroner's office manager as applicable.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the coroner service manager, who is employed by the Council.

Warwickshire matters: The office base and inquests will generally be at the Warwickshire Justice Centre, Newbold Terrace, Leamington Spa, CV32 4EL. The office is open on weekdays from 8am to 4pm.

In Warwickshire the 5 coroners officers are provided by Warwickshire Constabulary and are located at the Warwickshire Justice Centre in Leamington and Nuneaton Justice Centre. Inquests are opened in Court with dates for inquest hearings, usually set within the required six months.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the Strategy & Commissioning Manager in the Legal and Democratic Service, who is employed by the Warwickshire County Council in the Resources Directorate.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.
- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an assistant coroner:

- To support the Senior Coroner and Area Coroner in providing a high quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and where appropriate to be available to assist with 24 hour availability on a rota basis.

Assistant coroner Role Responsibilities and Assessment criteria
