Role Purpose

You will play a crucial role in supporting two Directors, ensuring the smooth operation of their working day to make certain that their time and energy is used where most valuable in the Council.

You will also play a pivotal role in supporting the wider service area and Senior Leaders within Social Care & Health to achieve business excellence through comprehensive administrative support.

Role Responsibilities

Responsible for over-seeing and co-ordinating all correspondence, enquiries, travel arrangements and diary management for the Director, in order to provide comprehensive, proactive and integrated support to enable them to discharge their strategic and managerial responsibilities.

Act on the Directors behalf using diplomacy and judgement (both on request and proactively) to support the Director in the discharge of their strategic & managerial responsibilities.

Be the first point of contact for the Director and be the gatekeeper for ad hoc requests and queries coming from both internal and external sources, ensuring actions are passed on, logged and chased where necessary, working independently and with resilience to resolve issues when they arise.

Coordinate seamless internal and external meetings and events including venue/room bookings, preparing agendas, collating and circulating materials, attending and recording comprehensive minutes or action logs, and diligently tracking actions.

Ensure that the Director is aware of updated movements and appointments.

Prioritise schedules, flag potential clashes or concerns, and forward plan meetings and documentation.

Be pro-active, anticipate needs, exercise sound judgement and work with a high degree of initiative to assist the Director and the wider service.

Be a trouble shooter to resolve problems and be solution focused, working under pressure and managing challenges when they arise.

Produce high quality documents, briefing papers, reports and presentations, including minutes as required, noting actions and creating decision logs.

Process financial accounting tasks including forecasting, invoicing and raising purchase order numbers, and using the in-house finance systems with high attention to detail.

Management of executive accommodation to include office equipment and furniture, health and safety, data protection and file management.

Maintain electronic filing systems, databases and logs e.g. HR/Payroll systems, complaints, FOI requests.

Handle highly sensitive information with discretion and maintain confidentiality at all times.

Build and maintain effective relationships at all levels, including Councillors and external partners

Provide reliable cover support during annual leave/sickness absence for the Executive Support Team within the Directorate, and across the Directorates as required.

Collaborate effectively across the high performing Executive Support Team to maintain exceptional quality standards.
