Please note: When logging on to an online training session in Teams, please turn off your microphone and video. This avoids problems that can sometimes be caused by poor internet connections. There will be an opportunity to ask questions at the end of the training at which point you may turn on your microphone to ask your question.

Bookings for NQT induction co-ordinators and NQTs can be made through the NQT Manager system by logging on with your username and password and clicking on to 'Courses'. If you are new to the system please register your details by logging on to <http://warwickshire.nqtmanager.com>. You will find further information on www.warwickshire.gov.uk/nqt

Please contact: hilaryhonest@warwickshire.gov.uk with any queries

Bookings for NQT ICT Training can be made through <https://www.ictds.org/e-safety-courses> - a code will be sent to delegates prior to the event.

NQT Induction Co-ordinators

We recommend that NQT Induction Co-ordinators attend this training at least every two years.

To clarify, Induction Coordinators make judgements, Induction Tutors offer mentoring and support, but do not make judgements.

If you have colleagues who you know will be an Induction Coordinator in the next academic year, please pass on details of this training and ask them to register on NQT Manager to enable them to book on.

This training will enable NQT induction Co-ordinators to

- Develop a clear understanding of their role and the school's statutory responsibility for NQT induction
- Be familiar with the latest DfE guidance and the NQT Manager system
- Know the key possible pitfalls for schools and how to address these
- Clarify any funding issues

NQT Welcome Meetings

Welcome to Warwickshire!

We would like to invite you to join one of the NQT Welcome Meetings organised by the Local Authority which acts as the Appropriate Body for the induction of newly qualified teachers.

This training is free of charge to NQTs registered with Warwickshire LA and gives you the essential requirements that need to be in place for you to complete your induction year.

Please note that attendance is compulsory and booking is essential!

Aims:

To inform newly qualified teachers about their school's statutory obligations and the role of Warwickshire County Council as the Appropriate Body.

To support newly qualified teachers in building links across their school's consortium.

The agenda for the afternoon will include:

An Introduction from Warwickshire Local Authority

NQT Induction Programme – essential information about your entitlement as an NQT

Behaviour management – strategies and tips on how to deal with potentially tricky situations in the classroom

ICT session - Use of social media

Q & A session

NB: After half term, we are planning to offer NQT network meetings where you will have an opportunity to meet NQTs in your area.

NQT Welcome Meeting	Online	13 October 2020	4.00 – 5.30

NQT Network Meetings

These area meetings are intended as a follow up to the NQT Welcome Meetings held in the first half of the autumn term.

The agenda will include:

- An opportunity for networking with other Warwickshire NQTs in your area (primary) or subject specialism (secondary)
- The NQT Year – a recently qualified teacher tells you about some of their experiences during their NQT year
- Union membership – information from the main teaching unions

NQT Network Meeting – North/Nun/Beds	TBC	16 November 2020	4.00 – 5.30
NQT Network Meeting – Central/South/East	TBC	23 November 2020	4.00 – 5.30

Managing Challenging Behaviour in the Mainstream Classroom

Following the NQT Welcome Meetings, we are pleased to offer this additional FREE training course for Warwickshire NQTs.

This is an activity based training session exploring ways to develop a repertoire of strategies to manage children and young people exhibiting challenging behaviours in the mainstream classroom. There will be opportunities to share practice and to ask questions.

Course Leader: Maggie Hawker
