Initial Children Protection Conference Outcome/Plan - KEY CHANGES

Section 1

1. Warwickshire's Restorative Values -Our Commitment to Children and Families

1. Warwickshire's Restorative Values - Our Commitment to Children and Families

Building Strong Relationships:

- Creating and maintaining respectful and trusting relationships.
- We will work WITH people, rather than just "doing to" or "doing for".
- Keeping the child(ren) central to our work with the family and everything we do.
- Recognising that families are the experts in their lives and their strengths and goals will be central when providing support.

Helping Communities and Families to Find their Own Solutions:

- · Creating one timely plan together, focusing on strengths within your family and network, as well as being open and honest about what needs to change.
- Promoting health, well being and education for your child(ren) and family.
- We will work together to manage needs, concerns and risks and identify solutions together to keep the child(ren) safe.

Being the Best We Can Be:

- · We will work together to provide high support and high challenge with you, ourselves and partner agencies.
- · We will support each other to develop the services we provide, learning from all feedback to improve our services for everyone.
- · We will work together to resolve difficulties quickly and restoratively, by finding the right way to support families.
