Appendix 1

Eligibility Criteria - to be used as part of the Housing Related Support service assessment

Applicants who may benefit from a Housing Related Support service will generally have either:

- one main need that is complicated by others,
- or a combination of lower level issues that together are a cause for concern.

They may include:

- presenting risky behaviours,
- a chaotic lifestyle,
- experiencing difficulties in a certain aspect of their life, or a significant threat of -
 - homelessness,
 - criminal justice,
 - self-harm,
 - significant debt that threatens their ability to maintain their independence,
- have an inability to engage and develop a future for themselves or
- escalating needs where one or more of these have a significant and negative impact on their ability to gain or maintain accommodation

At the highest level, eligibility for a Housing Related Support service will be defined through either one of the following:

Eligible for Social Care and Support (Care Act 2014)

The person will have eligible needs if they meet all of the following:

- they have care and support needs as a result of a physical or mental condition;
- because of those needs, they cannot achieve two or more of the outcomes specified;
- as a result, there is a significant impact on their wellbeing.

The outcomes are specified in the regulations, and include people's day-to-day outcomes such as dressing maintaining personal relationships, and working or going to school.

Or.....

'Edge of Care' - The definition of 'edge of care' is taken from No Secrets 2000 guidance and has been updated in line with the requirements of the Care Act 2014. This means that 'vulnerable adult' has now become a Priority Person.

A 'Priority Person' on the 'edge of care' is defined as a person aged 16 years and over who is, or may be, in need of a Housing Related Support service to prevent, reduce and/or delay the need for longer term care and support; and/or protect well-being by reason of:

- disability
- age
- illness, incl mental illness
- substance misuse
- homelessness
- experience of institutional living such as prison or long stay hospital or children's residential care service

Who are, or may be, unable to take care of themselves or protect themselves from significant harm or serious exploitation; or represent a threat of harm to their community.
