Scale of charges

A charge may be made for the reproduction of material from our collections (e.g. documents, photographs, prints, drawings, maps) in publications, displays or for any other commercial purposes.

Where original material still belongs to a depositor rather than to the Record Office, the depositor's consent may have to be obtained to the reproduction. If the item is still within copyright, permission to reproduce must also be obtained from the copyright owner.

Part or all of the reproduction fee may be waived, at the discretion of the Head of Archive Service particularly if the publication is charitable or educational in nature. A copy of the publication may also be requested for use by our readers in the Record Office library.
