Path known as 'Lower Friars'

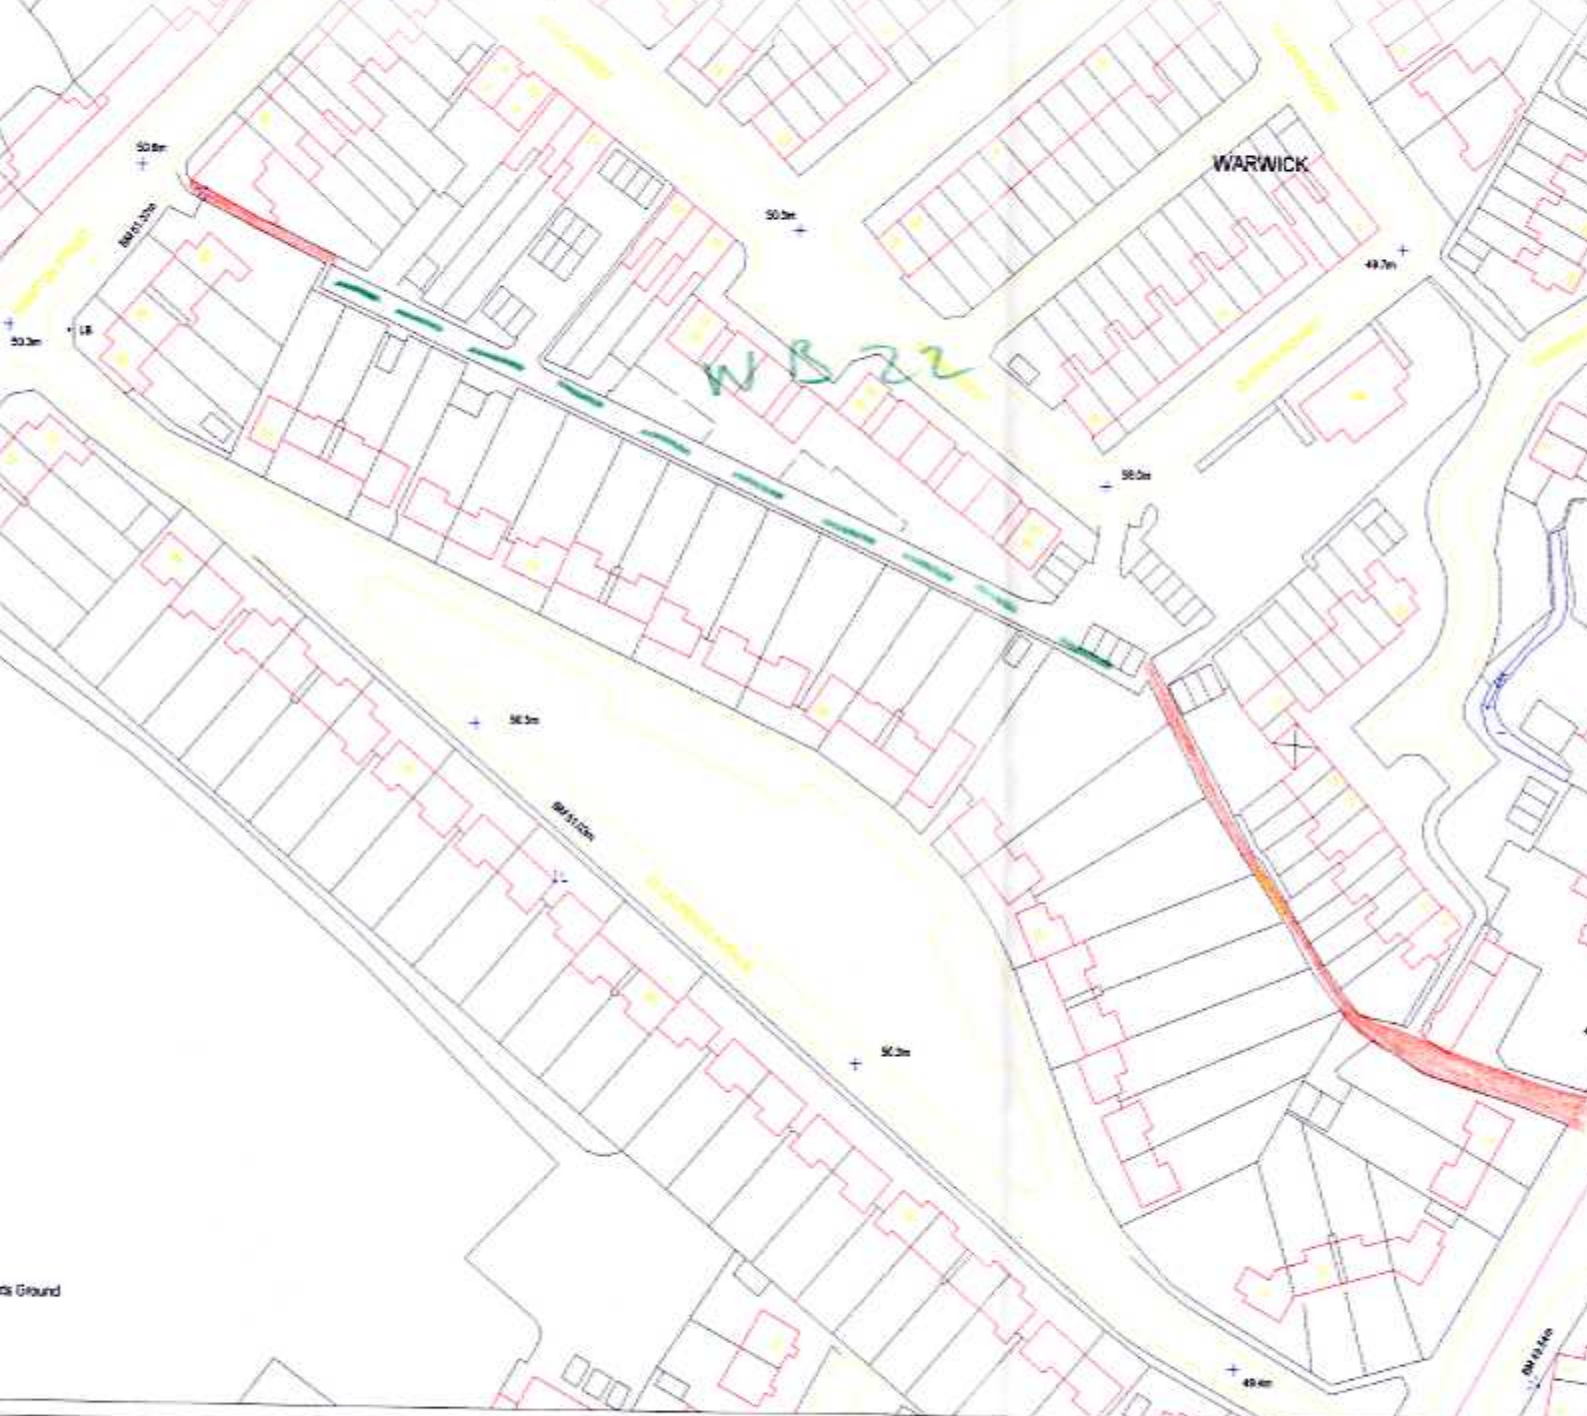

Evidence

All references are to documents held by the County Record Office.

- 1) 1786 Estate map of Warwick (CR1886/M32): east part shown as a track from Stratford Road, between hedges, going in to a field and then west along edge of field.
- 2) Estate map of c.1802 (CR237/89/1) shows end of path from West Street/Stratford Road as it emerges into field called "Lower Fryers" with gate onto Gog Lane (now Hampton Road) at the other end of the field.
- 3) Plan of 1831, with deed (CR237/99/1+2): plan labels "foot road" as an abuttal to one plot; deed refers to it as "footpath leading out of the Hampton Road to or towards West Street".
- 4) deeds of 1830-1833 (CR237/188/1-3): describe same abuttal as "foot road leading from Hampton Road into West Street".
- 5) Tracing of map of 1837 (CR1618/W6/23): whole of path shown and labelled as "Foot Road".
- 6) Tithe Map 1848 (CR569/252): part off West Street shown coloured (wrongly: blue as if it was a stream!) as separate piece of land (not titheable) with pecked line adjoining it and continuing in to field to west (field not numbered and, therefore, not titheable - presumably since built on). Land not titheable, and not developed, is normally land which is waste, such as a highway.
- 7) 1851 Board of Health map (published by the County Council in a teaching archive): labells route as "Lower Friars" and shows spot heights + symbol/label as boundary of St Pauls parish along route.
- 8) Plan of Commonable Lands of St Marys 1874 (CR1618/WA16/1/33): shows north-west end of route (not labelled) coloured in same way as other roads.
- 9) Diversion Order (confirmed 25/8/1971) moved central section (now called WB22 on Definitive Map) onto new service road. [This diversion confirms that the whole route is public since there were no other routes linking to it.]
- 10) The section off West Street contains an old, standard, Highway Authority street map post, which could not have been installed without the then Council believing the route to be a public highway since they would have had no other powers to install it.

N.B. Form B is not included since the owners of these two sections of this original path are not known.
