

ICT Work Take On Process

This process explains how the business can request ICT assistance for IT Procurements (hardware, software, services), IT project proposals and requests for changes to applications. This process will be used from April 2019, but will be modified as components of the Corporate Change Framework are put in place.

